March 27, 2016
Speaker: Brent Hunter

Intro.

- A. How sad that many die with no h_____.
- B. Christians rejoice that “death is swallowed up in v_____” (I Cor 15:54).
- C. THESIS: The Resurrection Itself & Resurrection Hope in our Daily Life.

I. THE RESURRECTION ITSELF!

- A. What will happen? A b_____ resurrection!
- B. How will it be raised? Similar to different kinds of flesh, to the cosmos, and to a seed that dies.
- C. When? First C_____, then the earth will be dissolved, then Christ will deliver the kingdom, then death will be destroyed (I Cor 15:23-24, I Thess 4:13-18).

II. HOW DOES RESURRECTION HOPE EMPOWER MY LIFE?

- A. Provides me with p_____ when I feel weak.
- B. Offers e_____ when I am down.
- C. Makes suffering meaningful, not just bearable.
- D. Provides will- power to subdue sinful desires.
- E. Strengthens my f_____ when I am in doubt.
- F. Fortifies my h_____ when I feel futility (Heb 6:19-20).
- G. Assures me of victory when d_____ looms large (Rom 8:31-39).

Conclusion:

- A. The resurrection is the b_____ of our Christianity.
- B. It serves as the motivator that inspires my life. What does it do for you?
