

TIPS ON DRESSING MODESTLY

By Heather Federick

Immodesty is definitely a temptation for myself and many other women. There are many opinions on what things are modest and immodest and I am always open to improving that for myself. I hope this will help some of my beloved sisters in Christ in making godly choices in regards to their dress. I appreciate Brent asking for my input on this important subject.

Here are some tips for modifying low cut shirts and dresses:

- Wear a tank top, cami, sports bra, or silky or plain collared shirt underneath. Really any form fitted shirt could work whether it be sleeveless, long sleeve, or short sleeve.
- Stitch or use a safety pin to bring the neckline higher.
- Use a scarf tied to cover the low neckline.

Swim wear:

- Bikinis are immodest but can be used as undergarments under modest swim wear
- The board shorts I buy are the longer ones that are closer to your knee. I have found them at surf shops and sporting goods stores. Look in the workout clothes section of the stores. This is a good place to find more modest apparel.
- Wear a tank top and board shorts/ workout shorts over a bikini.
- Wear swim top that is like a tank top but shows no cleavage (these are a little challenging to find) with board shorts/ workout shorts.
- Wear a short or long sleeve swim shirt with board shorts/workout shorts.

Sleeveless, low back, and thin strapped dresses and shirts:

- Wear a tank, sports bra, or any fitted shirt underneath.
- Wear a half jacket or sweater over the outfit.
- Wear a scarf covering the area.

As far as pants, skirts, dresses, and shorts . . .

There are lots of different styles that I consider modest. I buy the longer shorts that are closer to the knee.

- Capri pants are great for summer. I only wear leggings or skin tight jeans under dresses or longer shirts that are at least mid-thigh.
- Skirts and dresses I buy have to be at least right above the knee or longer.

Any outfit can be made more stylish by adding cute shoes, jewelry, scarfs, and other accessories! You can dress modestly, yet in a classy way, that honors both God and your husband and look great at the same time! Stand out in a good way!
