

What My Father Taught Me

“Commit your works unto Jehovah and you will succeed” (Prov 16:3).

Sunday Morning: 10:30 am

June 15, 2014

Scripture Reading: Prov 17:6, Prov 16:3

Speaker: Brent Hunter

INTRO:

A. “The glory of children is their f_____” (Prov 17:6).

B. Today: In honor of father’s day, talk about my Dad.

I. SOLOMON SPOKE OF THE VALUE OF PARENTAL INSTRUCTION.

A. “Observe the commandment of your father, and do not forsake the teaching of your m_____ (Prov 6:20).

B. “When you walk about they will g_____ you” (Prov 6: 22).

C. “The just man walks in his i_____: his children are blessed after him (Prov 20:7).

II. LESSONS I LEARNED FROM MY FATHER (Prov 16:3).

A. “Commit your works unto Jehovah and you will succeed.”

B. Be a communicator and lead the family.

C. “People are more important than t_____.” Family and brethren come first (Rm 12:10, Gal 6:10)!

D. “Winning souls is a top priority(Prov 11:30).

E. “They don’t care what you know, until they know that you care.”

F. Your real occupation is being a C_____ (Matt 6:33).

G. Enjoy the satisfaction of a job well done (Prov 13:19, Ecc 9:10).

H. Strive for balance. Work hard and play hard (Prov 22:29).

I. “Make promises sparingly and keep them f_____”

J. Be a man and be faithful to your wife, pass on the l_____ of faithfulness!

K. If you are generous with a little, you won’t be generous with a lot.”

L. Do your good deeds in s_____ (Matt 6:3-4).

CONCLUSION: Dad’s do you know God? Leave a legacy of faithfulness! Happy Father’s day!

MY NOTES

SCRAMBLED ANSWERS

guide
integrity
things
Christian faithfully legacy secret fathers
mother