Speaker: Brent Hunter

Introduction:

- A. We need g_____wisdom, not worldly wisdom!
- B. We also need compassion. It is difficult to be a teen.

I. HOW DOES ONE BUILD A HOME THAT WILL ENDURE?

- A. “By wisdom a house is built” (Prov 24:3-4).
- B. And by u_____it is established.
- C. “And by k_____ the rooms are filled with riches.”

II. IT IS A 3-STEP PROCESS, AN OVER ARCHING PRINCIPLE.

- A. Knowledge deals with the w_____. Requires listening.
- B. Understanding answers the question of why.
- C. Wisdom: How do I deal with the what, in light of the why?

III. SIX WISDOM PRINCIPLES.

- A. M_____ trumps age in regard to privilege.
- B. P_____ is not always worth the price.
- C. Respect is developed through discipline.
- D. Don't just issue edicts, teach discernment.
- E. A teen is personally a_____ to God (Rm 14:12).
- F. People are different and are I_____in different ways.

Conclusion:

- A. Are you building a home based upon w_____?
- B. The answer is not in the hands of your children, but yours.
- C. “Except J_____ build the house, they that build it do so in vain” (Prov 127:1).
